

ABOUT VOLTAS

Incorporated in 1954, Voltas Limited is a part of the Indian multinational conglomerate, the TATA Group. The Company is India's largest air conditioning company, with a strong presence offering leading engineering solutions across Air Conditioning and Cooling Products (Unitary Products), Engineering Projects and Engineering Products & Services. At Voltas, our focus is on driving value through smart engineering and providing best-in-class business solutions to consumers and industries – unlocking exceptional value for all our stakeholders.

We are one of the most reputed, distinguished, and trusted Indian engineering solution providers specialising in project management. The Company plays an essential role in developing the nation's infrastructure and exporting unparalleled expertise across, Cooling and Ventilation, Infrastructure Projects, Engineering, Construction, Textile, Mining and Manufacturing sectors. Extending our expertise in the consumer durables segment, we entered the Home Appliance segment through a 50:50 Joint Venture with Arçelik (VoltBek).

Voltas has been the undisputed market leader in the Room Air Conditioner category since more than a decade, consistently maintaining the No. 1 position with the YTD market share of 23.4% as of March 22 at Multi brand outlets.

Voltas has its head office in Mumbai and regional offices in several major cities in India. Its overseas offices are in Bahrain, Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Qatar, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and Singapore. The company has factories at Waghodia and Pantnagar (Uttarakhand) and Sanand.
