3. In the year 2010, the Group through its Qatar Branch had entered into a sub-contract jointly with a consortium partner, with a Main Contractor, in connection with a project awarded by the Ultimate client. In 2014, the Main Contract between the Ultimate Client and the Main Contractor was terminated by the Ultimate Client, closer to the completion of the contract, citing delays and defects in execution and initiated arbitration proceedings against the Main Contractor. Accordingly, the Group had made a comprehensive assessment of the losses arising on account of the termination of the Main contract and had accounted for all probable losses on the sub-contract in the earlier years.
- In connection to the sub-contract, the Group had issued bank guarantees amounting to ₹ 392 crores (QAR 166.6 million) to the Main Contractor which have been disclosed as a contingent liability in the financial statements over the years. In June 2023, the Group was informed by its bankers that the Main Contractor had sought to invoke the said bank guarantees. However, due to certain deficiencies, in the invocation process, the guarantees were not honoured by the Bank, leading to the commencement of legal proceedings by the Main Contractor and the Group. The matter is currently sub-judice and the proceedings are currently ongoing between the Main Contractor, the Group and the Bank. As per the latest development, all parties including the Group have filed their respective appeals before the Court of Appeal (Qatar) which has remanded the matter back to the Court appointed Experts for a fresh review of the objections raised by the respective parties including the bank. In the meantime, the bank guarantee issued by the Group in favour of the Main Contractor continues to remain unencashed. The Group continues to re-assess its liability under the sub contract at each reporting date. Based on its ongoing assessment and legal advice obtained from independent counsel, the Group is confident that it has good grounds to defend any claims that may arise. Accordingly, no further provision has been considered in the financial results. The Group has taken all necessary steps, including legal remedies to safeguard and defend itself and is closely monitoring the developments as they may arise.
